Our Purpose

The Appaloosa Reining Horse Association is dedicated to the promotion of the Appaloosa reining horse, it's breeders, owners, and riders. Through our organization, we offer incentives to encourage the growth and popularity of Appaloosa reining in open and breed competition.. The Appaloosa horse is known for its versatility, stamina, endurance, and gentle disposition. But, it's most notable characteristics are its colorful coat patterns and unique heritage in American history. Championship reining has no color boundaries.

2005 ApRHA Open Futurity winner, Clint Haverly with Ma Thunderstorm, owned by Marco Brunetti.

The Appaloosa Reining Horse association is an affiliate of the Appaloosa Horse Club and the National Reining Horse Association. Members of the ApRHA do not need to be members of the ApHC. Our annual membership meeting is held during the Appaloosa Horse Club World Championship Show in Ft Worth, TX.

Plans are currently underway to expand the number of Appaloosa reining derbies and futurities across the country, as well as the added money and prizes at each event. Join us as we grow and "Slide

The ApRHA World Show Futurity

The annual ApRHA Futurity, held in conjunction with the Appaloosa World Championship Horse Show in Ft. Worth, TX offers total purse and prizes of over $50,000. The futurity is open to registered Appaloosa horses and offers both an Open, Intermediate Open and Non-Pro Divisions. The futurity has steadily grown in purse size and entrants as recognition of the excellent payout has spread across the U.S. and Canada. Both the rider and the horse owner must be members of the ApRHA to enter the futurity

The ApRHA Derby

Large cash prizes and awards are given to the Open and Non-pro winners of the ApRHA Derby. The ApRHA Derby is held in conjunction with the ApHC National Championship and Youth World Championship Show in Oklahoma City, OK. The Derby is for horses that are 4, 5, and 6 years old. Visit the ApRHA website for details on this event and to download entry forms.

The ApRHA Youth Superstakes

Youth members of the ApRHA are encouraged to participate in the Youth Superstakes. This event is also held in conjunction with the ApHC Youth World Championship Show in Oklahoma City. In two age divisions, 13 & Under and 14 - 18, members compete for cash awards and prizes which are donated by our sponsors. Preceding the event, a youth social is held to give the competitors an opportunity to visit with each other and meet professional trainers.

The ApRHA Stallion Service Auction

Our annual Stallion Service Auction provides funding for cash prizes at the ApRHA Derby, and Futurity. Breeders may bid on any of the stallions that have been generously added to our roster by their owners. All bids are 1/2 of the advertised stud fee. The savings are significant for the breeder and the stallion owner benefits from added publicity. A stallion roster and bid forms may be obtained from the ApRHA website or by calling the Stallion Auction

ApRHA Annual Raffle

Each year the ApRHA holds a cash raffle as a major source of funding for the Futurity. Raffle tickets are sold by members prior to the futurity. The winning ticket holder receives a $5,000. cash prize and additional cash prizes are given to five other winners. Every ApRHA member is encouraged to sell a minimum of three tickets.
